General Course Objectives:

Early Childhood educators need to understand the importance of theories and practices in early education can help the development and learning of young children. However, it is not enough to simply understand the importance of theories and practices. It is not even enough for educators to embed curriculum with opportunities for children to learn through different theories and practices. Early childhood educators must create opportunities to advocate the use of these theories and practices being utilized in homes, communities and the classroom.

THE HOLISTIC TRANSFORMER MODEL (HTM)

Employing the Department of Education’s Holistic Transformer Model (HTM), EC 200 contributes to the education and training of pre-service and in-service teachers. Holistic Transformers model the academic skills associated with listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Therefore, Holistic Transformers are prepared to develop and employ a balanced and integrated approach to teaching.

Holistic Transformers are:

- 1) Scholars who continually strive to understand theoretical knowledge bases associated with instruction in elementary and secondary classrooms;
- 2) Facilitators and Reflective Thinkers who enrich the classroom instruction by stimulating their pupil’s natural desire to learn and who examine the nature and success of their instructional practices and the progress of their pupils through continuous assessment; and
- 3) Responsible Professionals who build upon their scholarly knowledge and understanding throughout their careers.

MATRIX: LINKAGE OF THE HTM AND THE COURSE

The following course outcomes represent what teacher candidates will know and be able to do at the completion of this course as it relates to the Holistic Transformer.

Early Childhood Course Policies

These are ECED course policies required for this course. Read these carefully. Following these policies will assist you in completing this course successfully. Please ask questions if you do not understand any expectation in this course. Please READ!! This section carefully!

ATTENDANCE:

(A). Students are expected to attend and participate in each class meeting. Class attendance is checked daily. Arriving to class more than 15 minutes late is a tardy. Two (2) tardy's count as one (1) absence. Any student arriving or leaving class before class is dismissed (30 minutes or more) after class has started will be considered absent for the entire class time. If you have an emergency or have to leave for any reason please inform the instructor.

Note: Students it is your responsibility to drop this course for nonattendance. Please drop this class if you are not attending or can not continue to attend.

(B). Mississippi Valley State University attendance policy allows three (3) absents without an official excuse upon returning to class. The fourth (4) absentee students (s) are required to bring an official doctor's or university excuse to class to return to class. Please have a copy to give Dr. Woods. There is a limit to number of excuse (4) that will be accepted. Student without an official doctor's (written) excuse or university excuse with 7 or more absence's will result in a grade deduction at the end of the semester and may result in repeating to class..

No phone calls please! Students do not have to call Dr. Woods to inform her of your absent nor however calling or emailing Dr. Woods to tell her you're not coming to class(for any reason) does not, will not excuse your absence, you will be counted as absent unless you give me an official doctors or university excuse.

Note: Students please review your Tentative Course Schedule daily and when your absent it is required to review your course schedule of assignments and activities prior to returning to class.

The professor's grade book serves as the official record for grades and attendance. Do not email-assignments, research articles, research papers or projects, etc.

Poor attendance records tend to correlate with poor grades. If you miss any class, including the first week, you are responsible for all material missed. It is a good idea to find a friend or a buddy in class who would be willing to share class notes or materials.

(C). USE OF CAMERA AND /OR RECORDING DEVICES:

The use of recording devices, including cell phones, camera's , video, audio record and tape recorders class lecture or sessions is prohibited. Prohibited in laboratories, faculty office and other locations where instruction, tutoring, or testing. Students with disabilities will be accommodated through other means. If recording of class session is authorized as a reasonable accommodation under Americans with disabilities Act (ADA), the instructor must have the appropriate documentation for MVSU Disabilities Act (ADA). Permitted recording are to be used only for the individual student's educational review of the class session and may not be reproduced, posted, sold or distributed to others. Students who violate this policy are subject to disciplinary procedures as outlined in the Student conduct Code.

(D). BEFORE YOU RETURN TO CLASS PLEASE DO THE FOLLOW:

(a). Review your calendar of assignments and activities sheet before returning to class this is your guide to what assignment is due next and date it is due.

(b). Student Absence for University-sponsored Events, Activities and Athletics:

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, athletics (or the event sponsor) students please notify the instructor at least a weeks prior to the date of the planned absence.

STUDENT CONDUCT:

Academic excellence demands that appropriate behavior and decorum be maintained by students at all times in the classroom, therefore Mississippi Valley State University has a zero tolerance policy for disruptive conduct in the classroom. It is the professor 's primary responsibility for control over classroom behavior and maintenance of student engaged in disruptive conduct or conduct which violates the general rules and regulations of this university.

It is an expected that students demonstrate professional behavior in this classroom. The classroom is not a place to socialize therefore please come in class take a seat, take out your text book , paper, pen, prepare to listen, learn, take notes and actively participate.

Disruptive behavior in the classroom may be defined as, but is not limited to, behavior that obstructs or disrupts the learning environment(e.g., offensive language, fighting in class, talking during class discussions, sassy talking back and insolent to the professor and classmates, weapons (any item used to kill or hurt the body of an individual, will result in permanent removal from the university). Any electronic device causing noise, lighted emitting device which disturbs other students and the classroom (e.g., disturbing noises from beepers, cell phones ringing, text messaging, receiving or sending emails during class time, palm pilots, lap-top computers, games, etc.), are not allowed.

No sleeping during class time, constant walking in and out of class during class will not be tolerated and student (s) will receive a grade of "0"

Harassment of students and professor, repeated outbursts from a student which disrupt the flow of instruction or prevent concentration on the subject taught, failure to cooperate in maintaining classroom decorum, etc.).

TURN CELL PHONES OFF BEFORE OR AFTER ENTERING THE CLASSROOM
Place your cell phone in your purchase, book bag, and you may not record or take pictures with your cell phone or other camera devices in class!!

No texting in class, your cell phone should be turned off and put away. This cause repetition of other students. Students may not leave the classroom to read/ response to a text this is disruptive to other student and causes student to lose their concentration and focus. When class is dismiss then check your texts messages. If students can not follow this policy the student will be asked to leave the classroom. If any student refuse to leave the classroom when asked by the instructor campus police will be called. This is MVSU policy! Students there will be 10 point grade deduction every time this policy is violated.

This is disruptive to the classroom environment and a distraction to other students and cause other student to lose concentration and focus.

Inform Dr. Woods before class that you must leave early. If you have an emergency during class and must leave immediately raised your hand inform Dr. Woods that you must leave due to an emergency.

Violator's will be asked to leave the classroom, receive a "0" grade and counted absent. Student who violate any of the above statements will be reported to The Office of Student Affairs.
